

SCCDAT: Youth Council Application

The Sumner County Community Drug Action Team (SCCDAT) is looking to form a youth council made up of high school students from each of the seven high schools in Sumner County. We cannot effectively address substance use and social/emotional issues without input from the young people in the communities in which we live. We invite high school students from Argonia, Belle Plaine, Caldwell, Conway Springs, Oxford, South Haven, and Wellington to please join us in making our communities a better place. Find your voice, share your ideas, and help make our schools and communities even better!
